Dear Ms. Scruggs and Mr. Slagel:

This submission serves as a response to your request to finalists dated October 11, 2018. In sum, you ask to be advised if any team member has:

1. Been terminated from employment or a consulting contract, or resigned from employment, a consulting contract, or a professional board or organization because of a report of allegation of misconduct.
  - No member of our team has been terminated from employment or a consulting contract, or resigned from employment, a consulting contract, or a professional board or organization because of a report of allegation of misconduct.
2. Been accused or adjudicated to have engaged in professional misconduct (for attorneys, only report sustained Complaints to the Bar)
  - No member of our team has been accused or adjudicated to have engaged in professional misconduct.
3. Been sued for professional or employment related actions and the case was settled, either by the member or an employer of the member, or adjudicated.
  - In the course of serving as the chief of several police departments, Mr. Larrabee, typically along with other municipal officials, has been named in multiple lawsuits. To the best of his recollection, nearly all of these lawsuits were dismissed. He did recall that one case did settle: Dominque Cash v. Town of East Haven, et al., 15 Civ. 0079, filed in U.S. District Court in Connecticut. Notably, when Mr. Larrabee was vetted by the U.S. Department of Justice ("DOJ") and the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI") to head the East Haven (Connecticut) Police Department, DOJ and the FBI were aware of this prior litigation and nonetheless approved his appointment.

- In the course of serving as a high-ranking member of the NYPD, Dr. Long, has been named in at least one lawsuit, in the 1990s. He is unaware as to whether the case was settled or dismissed.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you require additional information. We look forward to meeting you in Chicago.

Sincerely,

Katherine A. Lemire
